

PSY 540 : Psychopharmacology for Therapists

This course provides an introduction to psychopharmacology, the biological basis, classes of drugs, and introductory terminology related to psychotropic medication. This course is designed for graduate students in the Counseling and Community Psychology program.